(III) For each age group, individual category of men and women, if the number of registered participants in a category is 5 or fewer (including 5 individuals), men and women within the same event and age group will be combined for admission. The admissions and reward methodology used is identical to that of the individual events.

(IV) Group events: The admission ratio for barehanded routines and apparatus group events is the same as that of individual events. Award certificates and group event medals will be given to winners.

(V) Exhibition events: The admission ratio for these events is the same as that of the individual events. Award certificates will be issued to winners.

(VI) Winning teams:

1. The top six place winners will be admitted. Winners will be presented with a trophy plaque and cash prizes. The first place prize is RMB 10,000, second place RMB 6,000, and third place RMB 3,000. The stated cash prizes are all pre-tax amounts.

2. Scoring method: Each team's accumulated score from individual events' gold, silver, or bronze awards and group events's gold, silver, or bronze awards will be calculated. The higher the score, the higher the rank. In case of equal total scores, the team with more gold awards will be ranked higher. If the gold medals are also equal, the team with more silver awards will be ranked higher, and so on. If all award tallies are identical, the team with fewer competitors will be ranked higher. If teams still have equal standing, they will be tied.

3. Score calculation: Each gold medal gains 9 points, each silver medal 6 points, and each bronze medal 3 points. Points are accumulated for the final score.

(VII) All competitors will be divided into groups for competition and admission through a random draw.

(VIII) The “Wushu Morality Awards”

The “Wushu Morality Awards” is set up for the athletes and judges. The prize will be conferred according to the number of the competitors and events, competition results and competition morals, sportsmanship and disciplinary behavior. The selection method and ratio will be announced separately. Winning teams will receive a trophy plaque, and individuals will receive certificates.

All participants must complete two copies of the entry form (printed on A4 paper and stamped with the official seal of the competent authority), mail them to the Organizing Committee office, and send an email to wudangwushu@163.com. Participants must also include two passport-sized, bareheaded photos, a photocopy of their ID card, a liability declaration, and a health certificate, which should be sent together with the registration form to the Organizing Committee.

XV. Miscellaneous

(I) Team leaders and coaches must attend the Organizing Committee and technical meeting at 9:30 on October 21. The specific location will be provided in the registration instructions.

(II) Participants must apply for Personal Accident Insurance and health certificates by themselves during the competition and sign a liability statement. Failure to comply with any of these requirements will result in disqualification. If the participant requires assistance with insurance from the Organizing Committee, please indicate so on the registration form.

(III) After each participating team registers, the Medical Team will check the physical condition of the participants, the Personal Accident Insurance, and sign the Waiver of Liabilities. If any problems are found, they will be disqualified from participating in the competition.

(IV) Participants must wear traditional wushu clothes and shoes to participate in the competition, with their own clothing and equipment.

(V) Athletes should wait at the roll call area 30 minutes prior to the competition; otherwise they will be regarded as abstaining from the competition after three times absence on roll-calls.

(VI) Participants who fail to provide a valid reason for withdrawing from the competition will have all their scores canceled.

(VII) After registration, all teams shall carefully read the contents of the competition program. Suppose they have any objection to the entry items and names. In that case, they must fill in the application form by themselves or their team leaders and coaches before 9:30 on October 21, sign it, and submit it to the Sports Department of the Organizing Committee (and indicate the contact number of the signatory). Changes will be made if the requested modifications match the original registration form; otherwise, no changes will be made.

(VIII) Competition regulations, registration forms, and entry forms can be downloaded from the official website of the Chinese Wushu Association (www.wushu.com.cn).

XVI. Matters not covered will be notified separately.
