(II) Each athlete can only apply for 1 quan event and 1 weapon event. They can also concurrently apply for duilian event and the group event.

(III) Each team is allowed to registering for 1 group event, and the number of participants must be no less than 6. If the number of participants is less than 6, the team will not be arranged for the event. There are no restrictions on gender or age groups.

IX. Competition Methods

(I) The competition follows the Competition Rules for Traditional Wushu Routines (2024 Edition) approved by Chinese Wushu Association and the relevant supplementary regulations.

(II) Time for Routine Completion

1. Taijiquan events: The time required to complete the routine is 3 to 4 minutes. The chief judge will blow the whistle to give a reminder at the 3-minute mark.

2. Tai Chi Weapon events: The time required to complete the routine is 3 to 4 minutes. The chief judge will blow the whistle to give a reminder at the 3-minute mark.

3. Creative events, weapons, other traditional quan styles, and other traditional weapons events: The time limit is from 50 seconds to 2 minutes.

4. Duilian events: The time required to complete the routine should not exceed 3 minutes. The chief judge will blow the whistle to give a reminder at the 2-minute mark.

5. For prescribed events, the routine must be performed in the prescribed sequence. No movements should be added, subtracted, or changed. If the remaining part of the routine is not completed after the chief judge blows the whistle, no points will be deducted.

6. For group events, the duration is 3 to 6 minutes. The team must provide its own music. Content such as rap is not allowed in the music. If rap appears, the chief judge will deduct a total of 0.2 point. If there is no accompanying music, the chief judge will also deduct a total of 0.2 point. The coach or team leader of the team is responsible for handing over the music to the staff before the competition.

(III) Grouping by Age

Children's Group (Group A): 11 years and below (born on or after January 1, 2014).

Youth Group (Group B): 12 to 17 years old (born from January 1, 2008 to December 31, 2013).

Adult Group (Group C): 18 to 39 years old (born from January 1, 1986 to December 31, 2007).

Middle-aged Group (Group D): 40 to 50 years old (born from January 1, 1966 to December 31, 1985).

Senior Group (Group E): 60 years old and above (born on or before December 31, 1965).

X. Admission and Reward Methods

(I) Individual events: Awards will be given separately to male and female participants in each age group and event category. First, second, and third prizes will be awarded to 20%, 30%, and 40% of participants respectively, based on actual entries. Winners receive certificates and medals; others receive participation certificates. The allocation percentages are calculated based on the actual number of participants, and rounding will be done to the nearest whole number.

(II) Duilian: The admission ratio and reward methodology for both bare-handed and armed duilian events (including bare-handed versus armed duilian) are the same as those of individual events.

(III) Group events: According to the categories of quan events and weapon events (mixed bare-handed and weapon events will be regarded as group weapon events), 20% of the teams will be awarded the first prize, 40% the second prize, and 40% the third prize respectively, and winning certificates will be issued. The admission proportions are all based on the actual number of participating teams, and the rounding-off method will be adopted.

(IV) When the number of male and female participants in each individual event of each group is 5 people (including 5 people) or less, the events will be combined according to similar events of the same age group. If, after combining similar events of the same age group, the number of participants is still less than 5 people, then they will be combined according to similar age groups of the same event. Awards will be given separately for males and females.

(V) Winning teams:

1. The top three will be selected. Separate selections will be made for participants from domestic regions and overseas regions. Winning plaques and prize money will be awarded. The first place winner will receive a prize of CNY10,000, the second place winner will receive CNY6,000, and the third place winner will receive CNY3,000. All the prize money for the top three is pre-tax.

2. Scoring Method: The accumulative scores is calculated based on the first prizes, second prizes, and third prizes obtained by each team in individual exercise events and group events. The team with the higher total score ranks higher. If the total scores are equal, the team with a larger number of gold awards (first prizes) ranks higher. If they are still equal, the team with a larger number of silver awards (second prizes) ranks higher, and so on. If all the awards obtained are equal, the team with a smaller number of participants ranks higher. If they are still equal, they will be ranked jointly.

3. Score Calculation: Each first prize gains 9 points, each second prize 6 points, and each third prize 3 points. Points are accumulated for the final score.

(VI) Martial Virtue and Conduct Award:

The selection will be based on aspects such as the demonstration of civil etiquette, number of competitors, number of events, competition results, and good conduct. The selection method and ratio will be announced separately. Winning teams will receive a trophy plaque, and individuals will receive certificates.

XV. Miscellaneous

(I) Team leaders and coaches of each participating team are requested to attend the organizing committee and technical joint meeting on time at 9:00 am on October 23rd. Please refer to the registration notice for the specific location.

(II) Athletes must handle the “Personal Accident Insurance” and obtain the “Health Certificate” for the duration of the competition on their own. Those who fail to do so will not be allowed to participate in the competition.

(III) After each participating team reports, the medical team of the conference will check the athletes’ physical health conditions, the “Personal Accident Insurance” policies, and the liability statements. If any problems are found, the athletes' participation qualifications will be canceled.

(IV) After each team checks in, please read the contents of the competition schedule carefully. If there are any objections regarding the events or names, the athlete himself/herself, or the team leader or coach must fill out an application form, sign it, and submit it to the Competition Department of the Organizing Committee of the event before 9:00 a.m. on October 23 (and indicate the contact phone number of the signer). After being examined by the Chief Scorer, if the content of the application is in line with the original registration form, it will be revised; if it does not match the original registration form, no revision will be made.

(V) Participating athletes are required to attend the roll call 30 minutes before the competition and wait at the roll call area. If an athlete fails to show up after being called three times, it will be regarded as a waiver.

(VI) If an athlete withdraws from the competition without valid reasons, all of his/her competition results will be canceled.

(VII) Participating athletes must wear martial arts uniforms and martial arts shoes.

(VIII) This competition regulation and rules can be downloaded from the "Social Activities Department" column of the website of the Chinese Wushu Association: <http://www.wushu.com.cn>.

(IX) The Chinese Wushu Association shall have the final right to interpret these rules and regulations.

(X) Matters not covered herein will be notified separately.
